My Favorite Books:

These are some of the books I loved when I was in elementary and middle school:

These are some of my current favorite books:

I expect my students to participate, to be engaged in their learning, and to give good effort on every task - even the challenging ones. I believe that reading can expand my students' perspectives of the world, and I'm looking forward to a great year with these students as we explore our world through all things language arts!
